FIRST ROUNDTABLE MEETING ON FINANCING PROTECTED AREAS IN WEST AFRICA 27 May 2011 - Dakar, Senegal

INFORMATION NOTE FOR PARTICIPANTS

The Republic of Senegal is a West African country part of sub-Saharan Africa. It borders the Atlantic Ocean in the west, Mauritania in the north and Mali in the east. To the south, it borders Guinea and Guinea-Bissau. Gambia forms an enclave within Senegal, stretching more than 300 miles inland. The Cape Verde islands are located 560 kms from the Senegalese coast. Senegal participates actively in the international community and is a member of the African Union and the Community of Sahel-Saharan States. The official language is French, which is understood by a large part of the population, but there are also 10 national languages (Wolof – the most widespread, Serere, Diola, Puular, Soninké, Mandingue) and several other dialects. In 2000, Mr. Abdoulaye Wade became the President of Senegal and today he continues to hold that position.
