

Intervention from Canada on Agenda 2 – Operations of the Convention

The Canadian delegation is looking forward to the new approach and contributing to its success. We are also looking forward to the conclusions that emerge from these next few days and especially how they will contribute to implementation of the Convention by Parties. However, we do hold some of the same concerns as expressed by Norway.