

TO IUCN

Despite the presence of the tools, management of protected Areas has never been effected! Have you ever considered any gaps related to this?

10
15/10
16.13

Side-event: MONDAY 13:15-14:45 Room D

Do you think we can achieve the (Level 1)
targets using the existing tools and following the traditional approach!

GLOBAL INVASIVE ALIEN SPECIES INFORMATION PARTNERSHIP

Agenda:

Topic	Speaker
Welcome and overview of the Partnership	Chris Lyal, Natural History Museum Chair of interim Steering Committee for the GIASI Partnership
Tools produced by Partnership
The Partnership Information Gateway	Chris Lyal, Natural History Museum
Global Register of Introduced and Invasive Species (GRIIS)	Piero Genovesi / Shyama Pagad, IUCN-ISSG
Invasive Alien Species Pathway Management Tool	Piero Genovesi / Shyama Pagad, IUCN-ISSG
Future developments:
Tools to link IAS information	Samy Gaiji, Global Biodiversity Information Facility
From web to field: Partnership activities away from the internet.	TBA
Overview from now to COP	Donald Hobern, Global Biodiversity Information Facility

Partners include: CABI - FishBase Information and Research Group - Global Biodiversity Information Facility - Horus Institute for Environmental Conservation and Development - IUCN Invasive Species Initiative - IUCN Invasive Species Specialist Group - Muséum national d'Histoire naturelle France - Natural History Museum UK - Anatrack Ltd - and the UN Convention on Biological Diversity (CBD)