This internship will be located in the Nagoya Protocol Division of the Secretariat of Biological Diversity in Montreal, Canada. The internship is for an initial period three (3) months with a possibility for extension for another three (3) months depending on the needs of the hosting office. The internship is UNPAID and full time. Interns work five (5) days per week under the supervision of a staff member in the department or office in which they are assigned.

Responsibilities

Please type in the responsibilities here

The purpose of this internship is to assist the SCBD to prepare for and to promote the early entry into force and implementation of the Nagoya Protocol on Access and Benefit-sharing.

The Nagoya Protocol on Access to Genetic Resources and the Fair and Equitable Sharing of Benefits Arising from their Utilization (ABS) to the Convention on Biological Diversity is a supplementary agreement to the Convention on Biological Diversity and it was adopted in October 2010 in Japan. Its objective is the fair and equitable sharing of benefits arising from the utilization of genetic resources, thereby contributing to the conservation and sustainable use of biodiversity. The Nagoya Protocol will enter into force 90 days after the date of deposit of the fiftieth instrument of ratification.

Under the supervision of the Associate Programme Officer and the collaboration with relevant staff members in the Nagoya Protocol Division, the intern will contribute to the overall implementation of the ABS programme of work.

In particular, the tasks assigned would include, but not be limited to:

- Assist with policy analysis and briefings on developments relevant ABS international fora;
- Assist with the follow-up of national developments towards ratification and implementation of the Nagoya Protocol;
- Contribute to the preparatory work for expert meetings, the Intergovernmental Committee for the Nagoya Protocol and capacity-building workshops;
- Contribute to the development of capacity-building and awareness-raising materials; and
- Assist with the development of the ABS Clearing-House.
- Carrying out other activities related to the Nagoya Protocol as may be assigned by the supervisor.
