Global Partnership for Business and Biodiversity Annual Meeting

The Global Partnership for Business and Biodiversity will hold its 9th Annual Meeting on 5 November, at the Fundación Biodiversidad, Madrid, Spain.

The meeting will be an opportunity to address key elements of the engagement of the private sector and will showcase tools and solutions with a broader view of current trends, challenges, and opportunities for the advancement of the Business and Biodiversity agenda worldwide.

Key points of discussion will include:

- Report from the Chair and activities since the Egypt meeting in 2018
- Updates from CBD
- The Post-2020 Global Framework for Biodiversity
- Tools and mechanisms in business and biodiversity
- Action Agenda for Nature and People
- The road to 2020.

We Value Nature Dialogue and Capitals Collaboration Day

We Value Nature – Dialogue

The We Value Nature Dialogue will bring together relevant platforms and networks from across Europe to discuss opportunities for collaboration and synergies.

The meeting will provide an opportunity to:

- Share what you are doing to accelerate the uptake of natural capital, nature-based solutions and green infrastructure in business decision-making;
- Share your experience of what works and what doesn't;
- Discuss what more is needed; and
- Explore how We Value Nature can help.

If interested, please register here.

Capitals Collaboration Day 2019

Coalition organizations and partners will gather to discuss the latest trends identified in natural capital, and to explore successes and challenges in the natural capital approach over the last 12 months. During this Collaboration Day, the community will explore ways in which the natural capital community can support post-2020 initiatives such as Business for Nature, and collaborate with other communities to achieve impactful post-2020 commitments and outcomes. The Collaboration Day will also explore the concept of a 'multi-capital world', and how the success of the natural capital approach can inform this broader capitals approach.

Both the We Value Nature Dialogue and the Capitals Collaboration Day will take place on 6 November. The We Value Nature Dialogue takes place immediately before and will feed into the Capitals Collaboration Day, held at the same venue.

European Business and Nature Summit

The two-day Summit, taking place on 7 and 8 November, will bring together key representatives from businesses, financial institutions, governments, and civil society to facilitate more decisive global action to halt the loss of biodiversity and restore healthy ecosystems. It will provide:

- A forum to discuss the most recent progress made by businesses and financial institutions to better account for their impacts and dependencies on nature and make informed decisions to generate net positive impact;
- An opportunity to strengthen political ambitions to protect biodiversity and shape the New Deal for Nature and People;
- A regional stepping stone in the global run to the post-2020 biodiversity framework as regards business for nature and corporates contributing to protecting biodiversity and natural capital; and
- An opportunity to engage a wide European audience in addressing biodiversity loss.

Please contact Paz Ferrer at mpferrer@ecoacsa.com to register, spots are limited. For more information, click here.

Additionally, We Value Nature will hold two training sessions during the European Business and Nature Summit. The first session, Business Training on the Value of Nature: Training for Businesses, will take place on 7 November from 2 pm-3:15 pm. It will provide an introduction to natural capital, why it is important for businesses, as well as suggestions for businesses to move forward in the natural capital journey. Please register here.

The second session, Train the Trainer, will be held on 8 November from 3 pm-5 pm and it will equip business associations and natural capital advocates with skills, knowledge, and resources to teach their members and colleagues on how to integrate natural capital into business decision-making. The training session will take a deeper dive into We Value Nature with effective training activities and messages. If interested, please register here.
