Action Agenda for Nature and People, 27 September 2021 – 10 October 2021

27 September 2021, 10:30 a.m. – 12:00 a.m. EST

Registration is at: Webinar: Biosafety Commitments for the Action Agenda for Nature and People \(campaign-archive.com\)

I. Background

1. Biodiversity matters. Reversing biodiversity loss requires action from all segments of society, and it is in everyone's best interest to take action and put biodiversity on a path to recovery by 2030. Leadership and action can inspire others to safeguard, restore and invest in biodiversity.
2. Launched in November 2018 by the Governments of Egypt and China, in collaboration with the Secretariat of the Convention on Biological Diversity (CBD), the Sharm El-Sheikh to Kunming Action Agenda for Nature and People serves as a global mechanism for inspiring, connecting and mobilizing actions for biodiversity and biosafety, in support of the post-2020 global biodiversity framework and the Implementation Plan for the Cartagena Protocol on Biosafety. The Action Agenda is available at <https://www.cbd.int/portals/action-agenda/>. Please find more information at https://bch.cbd.int/onlineconferences/portal\_art23/actionagendaforum/.
3. To date, the Action Agenda has mobilized 210 commitments for biodiversity from around the globe. This webinar is therefore aimed at highlighting the Action Agenda as a mechanism for biosafety stakeholders to engage and contribute to the advancement of biodiversity and biosafety outcomes.

II. Objective and Outcome

4. The overall objective of the webinar is to provide an initial discussion on the importance and features of the Action Agenda to mobilize biosafety commitments from non-State actors. The webinar, meant to kick-start a series of online discussions, will ideally promote and inspire action towards issues related to biosafety and the protection of biodiversity.
5. As a result of the webinar, non-State actors will: (a) strengthen familiarity with the importance of guidance to making a commitment in Action Agenda; and (b) showcase the role of biosafety non-State actors' commitments/or potential commitments.
6. A proposed agenda for the webinar is contained in the annex below.

III. Modalities and general guidelines

7. The webinar will be organized for one hour as a start to two-week online discussions in the Biosafety Clearing-House with the same theme. The webinar will be hosted by the United Nations Development Programme (UNDP), in conjunction with the Secretariat of the Convention on Biological Diversity, via the Learning for Nature hub.

8. Apart from the key speakers, participants will have an opportunity to ask questions and provide insights, through question-and-answer segments, after each substantive session. The question-and-answer segments will be moderated by Helmut Gaugitsch, the National Focal Point of Austria for the Cartagena Protocol on Biosafety. To facilitate the discussion with relevant and consistent questions, the Secretariat of the Convention on Biological Diversity encourages questions to be submitted prior to the event to the Secretariat at: ulrika.nilsson@un.org.
9. Participants are expected to: (a) briefly introduce themselves when posting or stating their questions, including their name, title; (b) provide short, concise and focused questions and insights preferably in English; and (c) ensure that the messages are relevant to the event.
10. Representatives participating in the event are invited to register through the nomination process for the online forum at <https://www.cbd.int/doc/notifications/2021/ntf-2021-054-bs-en.pdf?download>.
