

IUCN Asia

Providing integrated solutions to sustainable development and conservation challenges

Li Jia
Forest Landscape restoration coordinator, Asia
IUCN Asia

IUCN

Members

- 1,392 Members in more than 160 countries, including states, Government agencies, NGOs
- More than 60 regional and national committees

Commissions

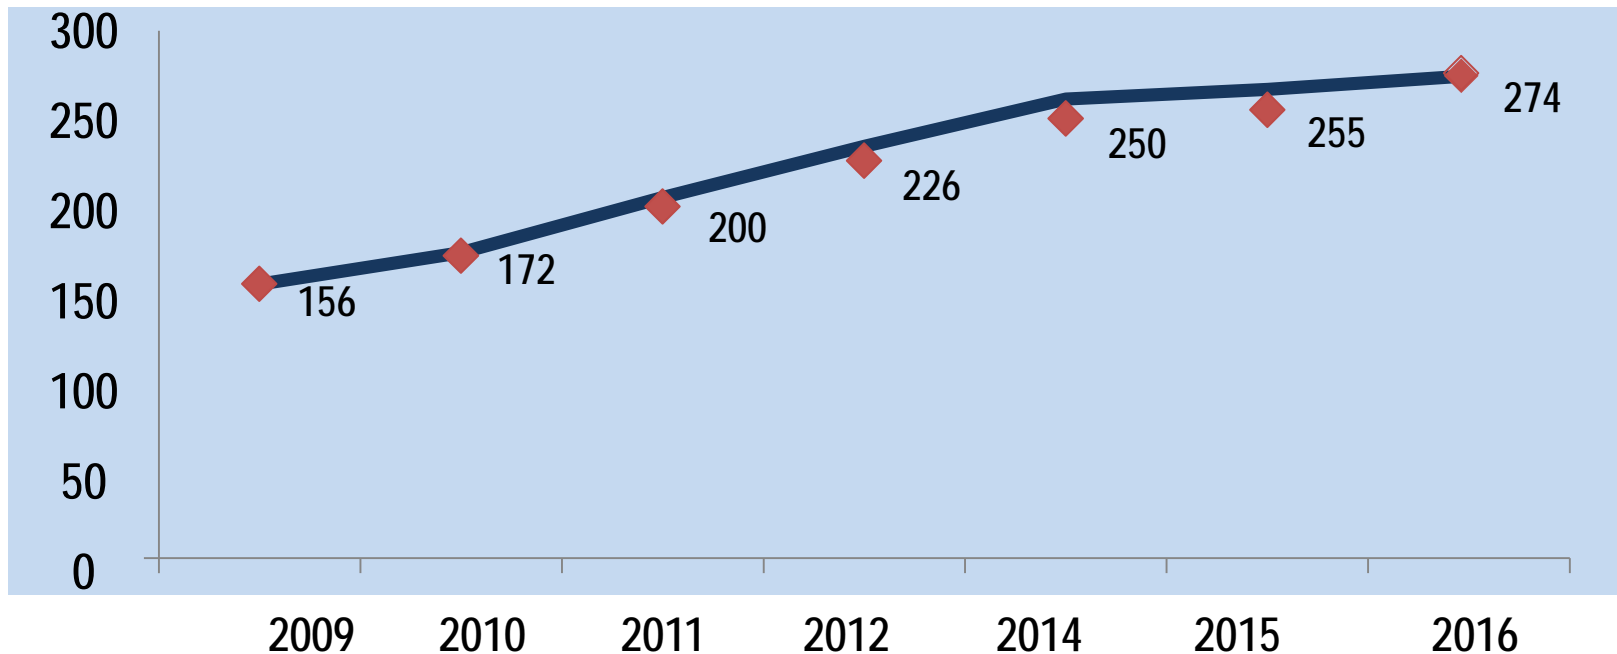

- Around 15,000 volunteer experts in 6 commissions

Secretariat

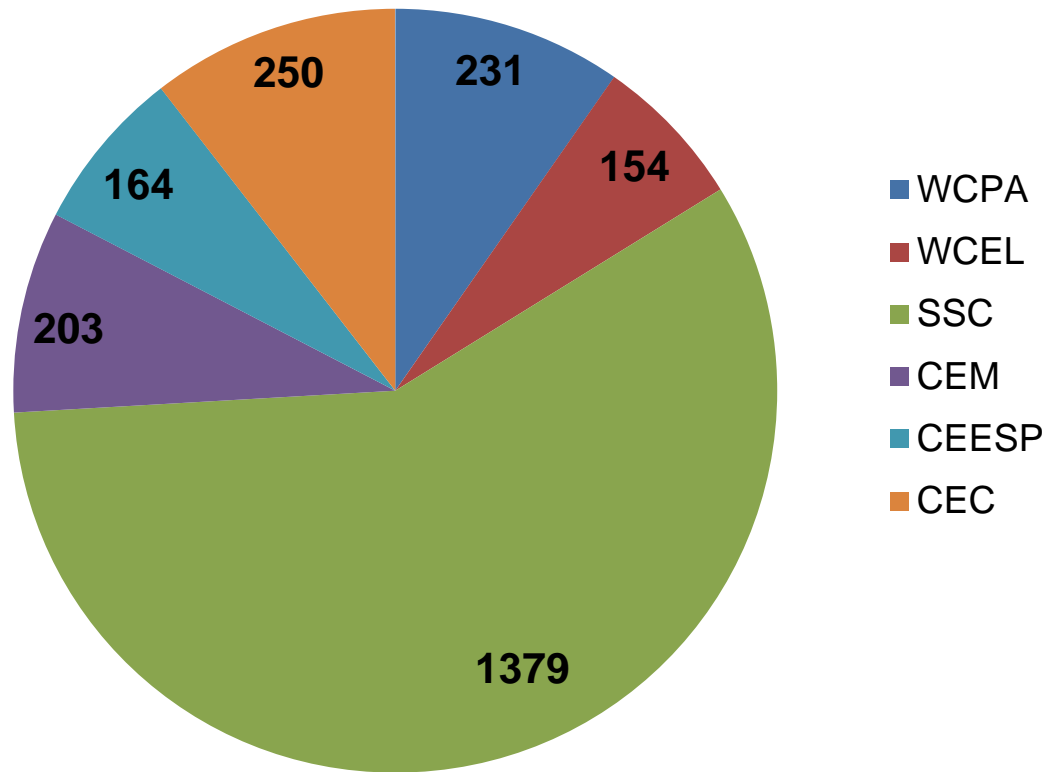

- Over 1,500 staff worldwide
- HQ in Gland, Switzerland
- More than 60 offices worldwide

Asia: dynamic growth of members

- Membership grows from 156 in 2009 to 274 today
- 21 of 23 countries in region represented (except Timor Leste and Brunei have no members),
- 14 State Members
- National Committees in 10 countries
- Regional Committee (chaired by China)

Asia: IUCN Commissions in Action

IUCN offices in Asia

- Bangladesh
- Cambodia
- China
- India
- Indonesia
- Lao PDR
- Maldives
- Myanmar
- Nepal
- Pakistan
- Sri Lanka
- Thailand
- Vietnam
- + regional office

IUCN program 2017 - 2020

Examples of IUCN knowledge products

- IUCN Red List of Threatened Species (12)
- IUCN / UNEP-WCMC World Database on Protected Areas and ProtectedPlanet.net (11)
- IUCN Key Biodiversity Area Standard (11)
- IUCN Red List of Ecosystems (5)
- Global Invasive Species Database (9)
- Restoration Opportunities Assessment Methodology (15)

protectedplanet.net

A Global Standard for the Identification of Key Biodiversity Areas

WORLD
RESOURCES
INSTITUTE

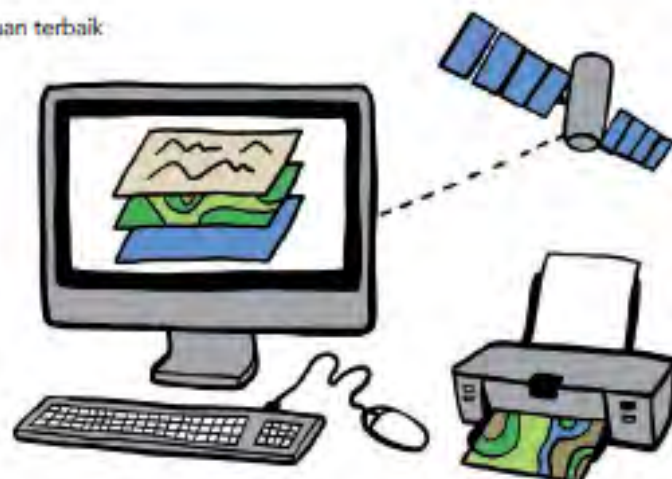

A guide to the Restoration Opportunities Assessment Methodology (ROAM)

Assessing forest landscape restoration opportunities at the national or sub-national level

Ilmu pengetahuan terbaik

Pengetahuan terbaik

Examples of technical assistance to countries

- Support of regional cooperation and dialogues on trans-boundary conservation issues (eg. PA, watershed management)
- National policy frameworks;
- Development of new initiatives;
- Implementation of conservation programs

Collaboration with the Government of Korea

Co-chairing Asia
Protected Areas
Partnership

Conservation of migratory birds on East Asian-Australasian Flyway (EAAF)