<sup>3</sup> CBD/SBI/6/INF/15, CBD/SBI/6/INF/16 and CBD/SBI/6/INF/18.

<sup>42</sup>. Takes note of the studies on the relationship between debt sustainability and the implementation of the Convention on Biological Diversity,<sup>5</sup> how the guidance on safeguards in biodiversity finance mechanisms adopted in decisions XII/3 of 17 October 2014 and 14/15 of 29 October 2018 have been implemented, identifying good practices and lessons learned, as well as opportunities for improving implementation of the guidance, and the relationship between biodiversity and climate finance;

3. [Invites] [Encourages] Parties and other Governments to consider the three studies in their work to mobilize financial resources from all sources, as appropriate and in line with national circumstances, priorities and capabilities, and in accordance with national legislation and Article 3 of the Convention, and in line with section C and Target 19 of the Kunming-Montreal Global Biodiversity Framework;<sup>6</sup>

4. Invites relevant international organizations and initiatives, regional development banks and other regional and international financial institutions, as well as stakeholder organizations, as appropriate and in line with their respective mandates, to consider the three studies in their work on biodiversity finance;

5. Invites Parties and other Governments, as appropriate and in line with national circumstances, priorities and capabilities, and in accordance with national legislation, and in line with section C of the Framework:

(a) To assess the implications of, and explore, further opportunities for applying debt-related instruments to the implementation of national biodiversity strategies and action plans and how they could be addressed in national biodiversity finance plans or similar instruments and planning frameworks;

(b) To enhance the integration of biodiversity considerations into national debt management strategies and to explore alternative debt management pathways that do not result in harmful flows of finance;

(c) To explore other opportunities for applying debt-related finance instruments for biodiversity, taking into account national contexts and circumstances;[(d) To consider, as appropriate, the full and effective participation of indigenous peoples and local communities, women and youth, the private sector, and relevant stakeholders in undertaking the activities above];

6. Encourages relevant international or regional organizations and initiatives, such as the Biodiversity Finance Initiative of the United Nations Development Programme, to support the activities described in paragraph 5 above, including by identifying good practices and lessons learned;

7. Invites Parties, as appropriate and in line with national circumstances, priorities and capabilities, in accordance with national legislation, and also invites other Governments at all levels, business organizations and other stakeholders, as well as national, regional and international development banks and other financial institutions, as applicable, in line with their respective mandates;

(a) To take the voluntary guidelines on safeguards in biodiversity financing mechanisms<sup>7</sup> into account when selecting, designing and implementing biodiversity financing mechanisms and when developing instrument-specific safeguards for them, with a view to harnessing their positive effects in an effective manner and to avoiding or mitigating negative effects;

<sup>4</sup> Paragraphs 2 to 8 are being kept in abeyance pending finalization of the three studies

<sup>6</sup> Decision 15/4, annex.

(b) To take the voluntary guidelines on safeguards in biodiversity financing mechanisms into account in the context of the ongoing review and harmonization of safeguards standards, as appropriate;

(c) To provide and strengthen capacity-building and development for the effective application of safeguards standards, as appropriate;

(d) To submit relevant case studies, good practices, lessons learned and associated guidance materials to the clearing-house mechanism of the Convention;

8. Also invites Parties, as appropriate and in line with national circumstances, priorities and capabilities, in accordance with national legislation, and also invites other Governments at all levels, relevant environmental agreements, business organizations and other stakeholders, as well as national, regional and international development banks and other financial institutions, as applicable, in line with respective mandates, to continue to optimize the co-benefits and synergies of biodiversity and climate finance, [while avoiding duplication between conventions and respecting their various mandates,] by:

(a) Capitalizing on emerging opportunities to create or scale up biodiversity synergies with climate finance-related actions;

(b) Integrating, or improving the integration of, biodiversity considerations into international and domestic climate finance mechanisms and policies, by:

- (i) Strengthening intersectoral coordination at the national level;
- (ii) Implementing and advancing social and environmental safeguards policies that reduce and prevent the potentially harmful impacts of climate-related programmes, projects and activities on biodiversity;
- (iii) Setting goals, designing policies, programmes and projects and taking actions with biodiversity co-benefits in the delivery of climate finance, such as programmes, projects and activities that support climate change mitigation and adaptation, through nature-based solutions and/or ecosystem-based approaches, as well as other appropriate approaches consistent with the objectives of the Convention;

(c) Significantly enhancing the understanding and transparency of accounting and reporting in relation to financial contributions as part of the efforts to optimize co-benefits and synergies, in line with the mandates of the respective multilateral environmental agreements.
