Comments on national situation
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> No CHM website been established There's a national environment website (www.environment.gov.ki) which provides basic information on biodiversity however this website was hacked in 2015 and restoration work is underway now to it. The environmental management information system (EMIS) is soon to be established in 2016 under the UNDP-GEF CB-II project.

Strategic Vision
"To improve and enhance the storage, protection, management and dissemination of the knowledge and information on the sustainable use, conservation and management of biodiversity to the general public" <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Adopt the Bioland tool for the CHM website The CHM Website should be established before or by the 2nd half of 2017 The content of the website will be in-line with the NBSAP The CHM website will be regularly updated and maintained by the division's (ECD) ICT personnel Regular communication with the CBD Secretariat for support and guidance will be made if and when required.
