(Version: 15 August 2012)

Introduction

1. Meetings of the Conference of the Parties of the Convention on Biological Diversity and its subsidiary bodies are convened for negotiations between the Contracting Parties to the Convention on Biological Diversity. Observers are welcome to attend these meetings, subject to the relevant provisions of the Convention and the rules of procedure.
2. To encourage the effective participation of observers in the process, these guidelines have been prepared by the Secretariat to promote a harmonious atmosphere supportive of an intergovernmental meeting, and to provide a point of reference for all.
3. These guidelines are not exhaustive. They provide information reflecting current practice regarding observers' attendance and participation at Convention meetings. They are in line with guidelines governing observer participation at sessions of other bodies in the United Nations system.

6. Badges issued at registration must be worn visibly at all times in the meeting venue.
