5. General information on access to Livingstone, Zambia

Livingstone, the tourist capital of Zambia is located in the Southern Province of Zambia to the South West from the capital Lusaka. It is serviced by the Harry Mwanga Nkumbula international Airport with direct flights from most regional airline hubs, particularly Johannesburg in South Africa. Alternatively, one can access Livingstone via domestic flights from Kenneth Kaunda international airport in Lusaka with short flights of about 50 minutes. The airport is located about 6 kms from Livingstone city centre and takes about 10-15 minutes. Taxis are available at the airport at a cost of about US $5.00.

Zambia is relatively peaceful country with very low levels of crime. However, like in most major cities in the world, personal security needs to be exercised and personal valuables secured especially in public places.
