

Strategy for Resource Mobilization at COP 12

A Key element of the Pyeongchang Roadmap for the enhanced implementation of the Strategic Plan for Biodiversity 2011-2020 and achievement of the Aichi Biodiversity Targets

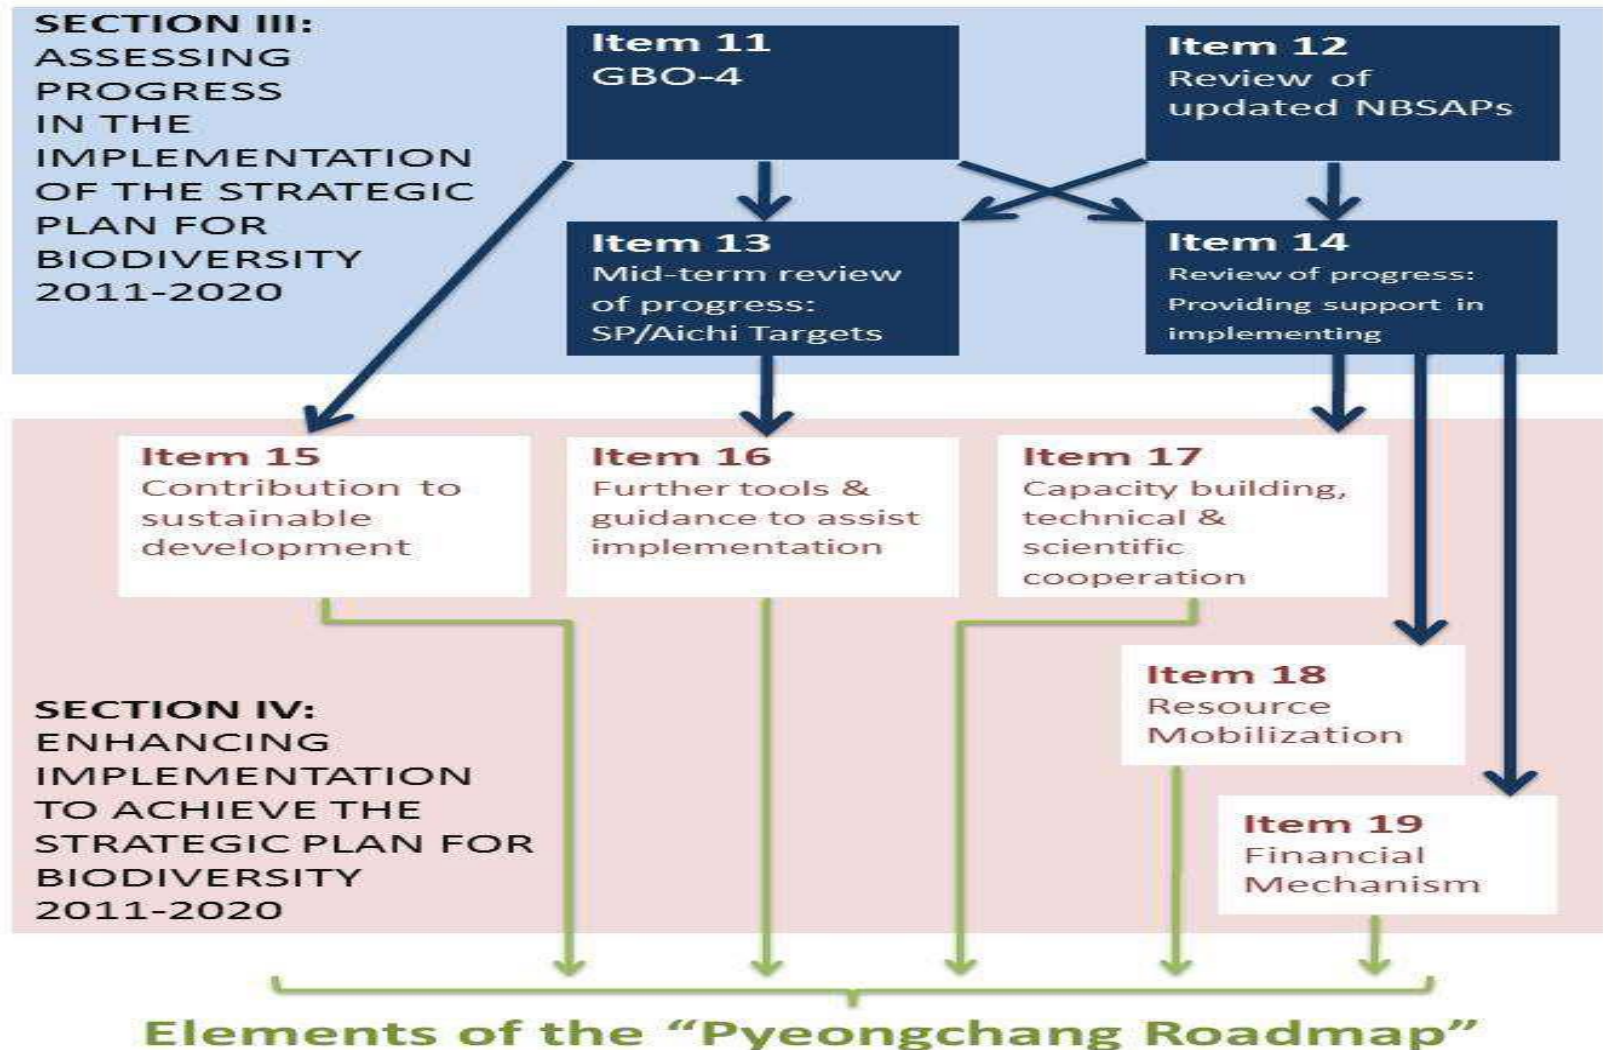

April 11, 2014

Seukwoo KANG

1 . Context : COP-12

2. Concept of Pyeongchang Roadmap

3. Need for the Enhanced Framework for Resource Mobilization at COP12

- The 2008 (COP9) strategy for resource mobilization in support of the Convention's three objectives was designed up to 2015
- No specific resource mobilization strategy to support the implementation of the Strategic Plan for Biodiversity 2011-2020 and associated targets by 2020
- Consolidation of decisions IX/11 (framework), X/3 (indicators) and XI/4 (preliminary targets)
- Need for Development of a coherent framework on resource mobilization at COP12

4. Guiding Principles for COP-12(Pyeongchang) Strategy for Financial Resource Mobilization

- Consolidating existing decisions, not lose any existing commitments
- Balanced and integrated approach
- Governments-led platform for developing financial resources agenda, following the Quito process
- Providing unified voice on biodiversity financing at various forums

4. Structure

- Rationales and background
- Goals and targets (international and domestic)
- Milestones and indicators
- Delivery and support mechanisms, including monitoring
- Concrete initiatives

We need elements suggested from you here

4. Process toward COP12

- Initial consideration in Quito
- Draft recommendation for inclusion in WGRI-5 pre-sessional document
- WGRI-5 discussions
- Swiss Workshop in July
- Seoul Workshop in September
- Pyeongchang negotiation

Thank You

환경부