

UNDP and biodiversity mainstreaming

The Future We Want: Stark Choices

Global poverty and inequity

Scarcity and vulnerability

Natural world on brink of collapse

Global wellbeing
and justice

Abundance and security

Vital and resilient natural world

UNDP views healthy biodiversity and ecosystems as a pathway to sustainable development Biodiversity mainstreaming means transforming business-as-usual....

Tourism

Forestry

Agriculture

Fisheries

Energy

Water

...into policies and practices that sustain biodiversity, ecosystems and people.

Tourism

Forestry

Agriculture

Fisheries

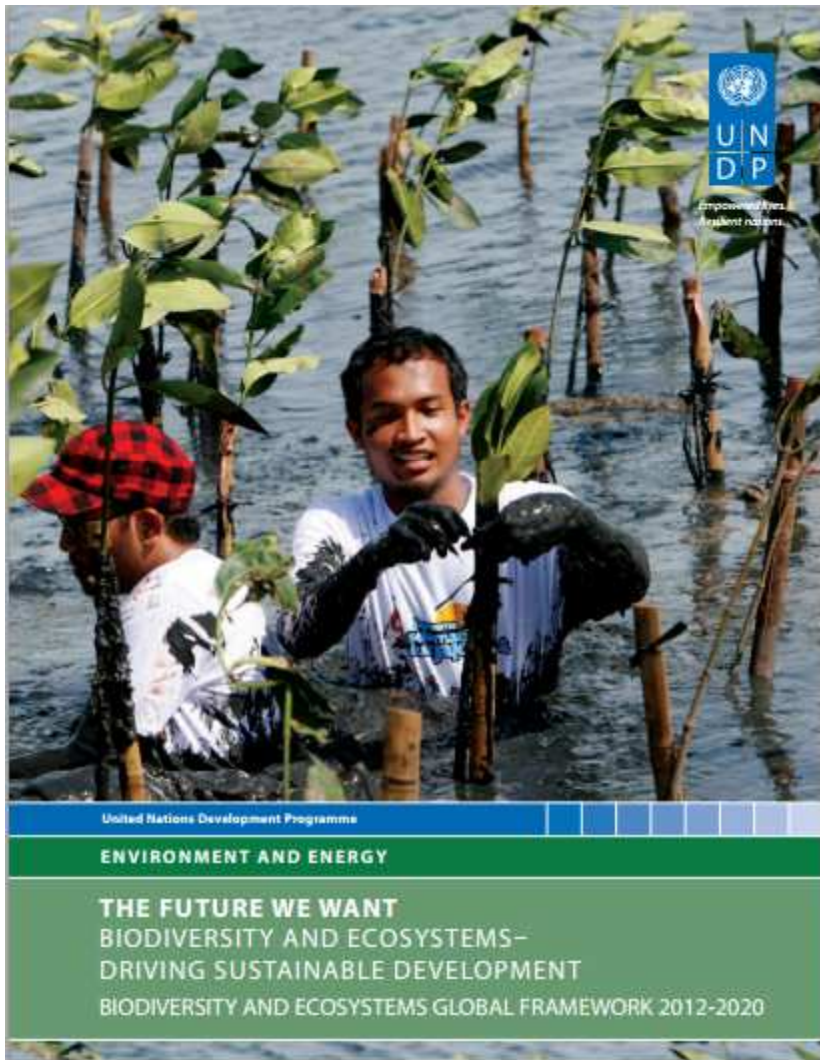

Energy

Water

UNDP's Key Priorities

- Biodiversity mainstreaming
- Protected areas
- Restoration
- Climate resilience and adaptation
- Sustainable finance

UNDP's mainstreaming publications – available on the NBSAP Forum

