NOTIFICATION

Regional Workshop on Sustainable Use of Biological Diversity, Quito, Ecuador, 18 – 21 February 2002

Dear Madam/Sir,

I am pleased to inform you that the Secretariat of the Convention on Biological Diversity, in close collaboration with the Government of The Netherlands, is organizing a third regional workshop on the issue of sustainable use of biodiversity, with a focus on marine and freshwater capture fisheries.

A series of three workshops on the sustainable use of biodiversity are being organized pursuant to decision V/24, paragraph 5 of the fifth meeting of the Conference of the Parties (COP), which invited Parties, Governments and relevant organizations to undertake appropriate action to assist other Parties to increase their capacity for the implementation of sustainable-use practices, programme and policies, through, inter alia, the organization of workshops. The main purpose of these workshops is to develop practical principles and operational guidelines for the sustainable use of biodiversity and its components based on case studies and other experiences for submission to COP 6, and in-depth consideration of sustainable use at the next SBSTTA meeting.

The first workshop was held in Maputo, Mozambique in September 2001 and focused on sustainable use of dryland resources. It produced a set of guiding principles. These will be further developed in the second workshop to be held in Hanoi, Vietnam, from 9 to 12 January 2001, with a focus on forest resources, including timber and non-timber forest resources (NTFRs). To ensure continuity from the first two workshops a few participants from the previous meetings will also be invited to attend the third workshop. Participants from the first and second workshops will carry over the accumulated experience and knowledge to the third workshop. Pending the necessary funding, SBSTTA 7 recommended a final fourth workshop to synthesize the conclusions of these three regional workshops into practical principles and operational guidance.

The agenda and annotated agenda of this third Regional Workshop are attached to this notification. Other meeting documents will be forwarded to the selected experts in due course.

To: CBD National Focal Points in South America

I invite you to nominate, at your earliest convenience but no later than 18 January 2002, an expert who can participate in the third workshop. Nominations should be accompanied by a curriculum vitae that clearly indicates the areas of expertise in accordance with the following selection criteria:

- In-depth knowledge of marine and freshwater fisheries issues;
- Sustainable use of biological resources (plants, animals and microorganisms);
- Traditional knowledge relating to the uses of marine and freshwater resources;
- Sustainable fisheries management;
- Community-base management;
- Valuation of marine and freshwater biodiversity;
- Freshwater and marine related knowledge in social sciences and economics.

The selection of experts will be based on expertise, taking into account gender balance and geographical distribution.

I thank you in advance for your cooperation in this matter and your continued support to the work of the Convention.

Yours sincerely,

[signed]

Hamdallah Zedan
Executive Secretary

INTRODUCTION

1. The Workshop on Biological Diversity and Sustainable Use is being held in accordance with Decision V/24 of the Conference of the Parties (COP) to the Convention on Biological Diversity on biological diversity and sustainable use as a cross-cutting issue.
2. In paragraph 5 of decision V/24 adopted at its fifth session, in May 2000, the Conference of the Parties, inter alia :

“Invite[d] Parties, Governments and relevant organizations to undertake appropriate actions to assist other Parties, especially developing countries and countries with economies in transition, to increase their capacity to implement sustainable-use practices, programmes and policies at regional, national and local levels, especially in pursuit of poverty alleviation. Appropriate actions may include:

  - (a) Workshops;”
3. The purpose of the workshops is to develop practical principles and operational guidelines for the sustainable use of biodiversity. This workshop, convened by the Executive Secretary with the support of the Government of The Netherlands, is the third and will highlight elements related to the sustainable use of marine and freshwater capture fisheries.
4. Participants in the workshop will be selected among government-designated experts in South America with a balanced regional distribution. Additional participants representing the other UN regions were selected among those experts who participated in the previous meetings held in Maputo, Mozambique and Hanoi, Vietnam. Also representatives of competent intergovernmental and non-governmental organizations, as well as stakeholders will be invited to participate as observers.
