Logo of the International Day for Biological Diversity

Dear Sir or Madam,

Reference is made to notification 2026-028 announcing the theme of the 2026 edition of the International Day for Biological Diversity (IDB): “Acting locally for global impact”.

I am pleased to inform you that the IDB 2026 logo files are now available on the IDB 2026 webpage, in the six official United Nations languages, namely Arabic, Chinese, English, French, Russian and Spanish, and in a range of versions tailored to multiple forms of digital and offline usage.

I encourage all Parties and partners to use the logo in branding their IDB celebration events, materials and activities as part of a global visual chorus in support of the theme.

I am also pleased to inform you that South Africa will host a special celebration event, which the Secretariat will highlight as part of our communication activities around IDB.

I look forward to your active participation in celebrating IDB 2026 and to receiving the high-level messages requested in notification 2026-028. As indicated, you are also invited to disseminate these messages through your institutional web and social media channels with the #BiodiversityDay hashtag.

Please accept, Sir, Madam, the assurances of my highest consideration.
