INTERNSHIP WITH THE SECRETARIAT OF THE UNITED NATIONS
CONVENTION ON BIOLOGICAL DIVERSITY:
SUPPORTING “BIODIVERSITY FOR DEVELOPMENT” PROGRAMME

PERIOD AND DUTY STATION:
Minimum of 4 months (6 months preferable), commencing May 1st 2012, in Montreal, Canada.

PURPOSE
The purpose of this internship is to provide assistance to implement the United Nations Convention on Biological Diversity with regard to mainstreaming biodiversity in development and poverty eradication policies, strategies and processes (www.cbd.int/development).

The internship offers an opportunity for a graduate student or advanced undergraduate student to gain international work experience and become acquainted with the implementation of a major United Nations multilateral environmental agreement and the intergovernmental processes this entails. In addition, the intern will gain an understanding of the issues of mainstreaming biodiversity in development policies and strategies, as well as contribute to communications and outreach in an international context.

BACKGROUND
The Convention on Biological Diversity (CBD) is one of the key agreements adopted at the 1992 Earth Summit in Rio de Janeiro, where world leaders agreed on a comprehensive strategy for sustainable development – meeting our needs while ensuring that we leave a healthy and viable world for future generations. The Convention has 193 Parties and sets out commitments for maintaining the world's ecological underpinnings as we go about the business of economic development. The Convention establishes three main goals: the conservation of biological diversity, the sustainable use of its components, and the fair and equitable sharing of the benefits from the use of genetic resources.

In May of 2008, the 9th Conference of the Parties to the CBD welcomed the Biodiversity for Development Initiative supported during from 2008 to 2010 by the Government of Germany, the Government of France and the UNDP within the CBD Secretariat.

In October 2010, the 10th Conference of the Parties (COP) to the CBD adopted a decision on “integration of biodiversity into poverty eradication and development” (Decision X/6). The COP-10 request the Executive Secretary to continue and improve among others:

- with the relevant partners, identifying, documenting, promoting and where appropriate supporting the best practices and approaches for integrating biodiversity into poverty eradication and development processes;
- mainstreaming biodiversity and ecosystem services in development cooperation plans and priorities, including the linkage between the Convention’s work programmes and the Millennium Development Goals in partnership with development cooperation agencies;
- promoting, through the clearing-house mechanism and other appropriate means the sharing of knowledge, experience, communication and awareness on mainstreaming biodiversity for poverty eradication and development;
- providing, developing and disseminating further, sectoral and cross-sectoral tools and best-practice guides on biodiversity and ecosystem services for key stakeholders, including packaging the relevant findings and lessons learned from the implementation of the programmes of work under the CONVENTION AS USER-FRIENDLY AND POLICY-RELEVANT INFORMATION FOR ADDRESSING THE CAPACITY-BUILDING NEEDS OF VARIOUS TARGET GROUPS.

TERMS OF REFERENCE (TOR)

Under the supervision of the Programme Officer, Biodiversity for Development Programme and in consultation with the Principal Officer, Implementation and Technical Support Division, the intern will contribute to the substantive work of the Secretariat in advancing implementation of the Programme of Work on Biodiversity for Development. The intern will assist the programme to prepare different side-events and high level meetings of the next Conference of the Parties (COP) in India (October 2011) and to develop tools and facilities for capacity development.

In particular, the tasks of the intern may include, but will not be limited to, the following:

- Draft and design communication materials that profile the services of CBD “Biodiversity for Development” programme, such as press releases, CBD statements, brochures, status updates, newsletters and website content.
- Assist the organization of events and meetings during the next COP
- Assist partners in the development of their own communication tools (posters, …)
- Explore the possibilities of e-learning and other tools for the dissemination of Good Practice Guides and tools box on biodiversity for development
- Assist with the effective administration of the programme, as part of the team.
- Write, review and translate documents, as required, based on relevant skills.

The work will inter alia involve desk study, review of existing project and country profiles, internet research, liaising with relevant institutions and SCBD staff, and the drafting of documents. TOR may be further specified in accordance with the needs of the Secretariat as well as the personal interests and qualifications of the candidate.
