

International Day for Biological Diversity
22 May 2012

۲ خردادماه ۱۳۹۱
روز جهانی تنوع زیستی
تنوع زیستی دریایی

Many activities will be held throughout the I. R. of Iran to honour the International Day of Biodiversity.

Some of these activities include:

- Holding training workshops for teachers of different study levels,
- Holding training workshops for schools with focus on biodiversity values of each provinces,
- Publication of biodiversity related informative brochures,
- Information sharing on biodiversity values throughout the provinces,
- Programmes in national and local TV and radio stations,
- Media coverage at national and provincial levels,
- Free entrance to visit the Natural History Museums of the country,
- Performing some biodiversity related programmes for kids, such as:
 - Execution of sport competitions in the city (such as cycling, athletics...)
 - Performing biodiversity related puppet show
 - Environmental theatres
 - Children’s paintings on clothes
 - Establishing make up and painting booths for children
 - Pardekhani (Religious Musical Narration)
- The media meeting of managers and director generals of the Division for Natural Environment and Biodiversity in DoE with regards to the biodiversity situation in Iran and reporting on the implemented programs and activities
- Release of the captured birds in Pardisan Park

- Conducting complementary training programmes for rangers and firemen on protection and caring for wildlife during fire
- design and publish of biodiversity week poster
- Holding training workshop on biodiversity and ecotourism
- Awareness raising through putting biodiversity related slogans on DoE website and other media